

K-LOVE gives my community something that is actually healthy & good to listen to. It gives support when you are going through hard stuff that you just can't get from the world. There is already enough problems in this world as it is. To take away K-LOVE would be like hiding the sun; life would begin to dwindle to a depraved level. Look, not everyone believes in what is right & good & truly just. Those of us that do are the catalyst that invite good changes in all aspects of society. You take away what's good, you are going to hurt yourselves in the end; besides who's bigger God or man? In the end he will have his way!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
